A SYRIAN STABBED FOUR YOUNG CHILDREN IN ANNECY, BEFORE STOPPED BY A YOUNG HERO

FRANCE IS UNDER SHOCK

Paris, Washington DC, 08.06.2023, 22:44 Time

USPA NEWS - Today, Thursday 8 June 2023, A bloodthirsty knife attack took place this morning, at 9:45 a.m., in the heart of Annecy, in a playground. An assailant stabbed four young children of around three years old and two adults. The six victims are in serious condition because of serious injuries. Police has confirmed that the assailant, a 31-year-old Syrian asylum seeker, was overpowered and arrested by law enforcement. He had lived 10 years as an optical refugee for 10 years, and had refugee status in Sweden, before coming to France in November 2022. A three-year-old British child is among the injured, another is Dutch. Two adults were also hurt, with one in a critical condition.

The President of the French Republic Macron, condemned this attack, on twitter "Attack of absolute cowardice this morning in a park in Annecy. Children and an adult are between life and death. The Nation is in shock. Our thoughts are with them as well as their families and the emergency services mobilized." Source: Officials Elisabeth Borne, the Prime Minister, and Interior Minister Gérald Darmanin went to the scene of the attack. PM Borne told a news conference that the attacker has "no criminal or psychiatric record".

Annecy prosecutor Line Bonnet-Mathis told reporters that the young victims ranged from 22 months old to three years.

went there and expressed the upheaval caused by this attack Several people, including children, were seriously injured by a knife attack in Annecy. My thoughts are with the victims. I salute the intervention of the police who were able to arrest the attacker quickly. I will get there as soon as possible. she said on twitter.

The Six victims including four children and two adults (a 78-year-old man) were seriously injured in a knife attack perpetrated by a 31-year-old man in a park in Annecy on Thursday morning. The assailant was apparent to the police four minutes after the SOS call. He was unknown to the police and came from Sweden where he had lived for 10 years and his asylum application had just been refused in France.

Elisabeth Borne "We are shocked by this unspeakable heinous act, when it affects children it affects all of us, and we are all in shock today. At the National Assembly, a minute of silence was observed by parliamentarians.

The author would have said "In the name of Jesus".

He would have requested a residence permit application for Asylum, in 2022, in France, upon his arrival last November.

This drama revives the debate on innovation in France and makes political opponents react, since the immigration bill has already been postponed twice, given the lack of an absolute majority in the National Assembly for the executive.

THE IMMIGRATION ACT HAS BEEN POSTPONED TWICE DUE TO LACK OF ABSOLUTE MAJORITY AT THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

"There is no majority to vote for such a text led by the leaders of the Republicans" had justified the PM Elisabeth Borne, who had announced the PM a month ago, by the Council of Ministers. She wants to present this bill on immigration before the next efee, certainly to toughen the conditions vis a vis irregular migrants.

At the same time, the regularization of immigrants who work in sectors which are in tension, and for which there is a shortage of manpower.

THE SIX VICTIMS ARE CHILDREN AND VULNERABLE ELDERLY PERSONS ARE IN ABSOLUTE EMERGENCY

The Six victims, including four children aged 22 months to 3 years, seriously injured, are "in a state of absolute emergency", following the stabbing of the assailant, in a quiet park, on the shores of Lake Annecy by a man, a refugee of Syrian nationality, armed with a knife. The assailant, arrested, is in police custody. Here is what we know about this attack "without any apparent motive".
